District council set to say 'no' to seafront plans

EAST Devon District Council look set to refuse an application for a possible 'iconic' seafront development in Seaton – saying the impact on the build would have an 'oppressive and overbearing impact on the occupiers of neighbouring properties'.

Plans were submitted last month by the Seaton Beach Development Ltd, who were set up for the sole purpose to buy an empty house on East Walk called Seaton Beach, formerly Trebere,

by Peter Hodges
peter@viewnews.co.uk

and turn it into an apartment complex.

The company consists of Axminster residents Mike Dowling and Anne Baker, plus Mike and Audrey Webb, who live outside Devon.

The plans for the eight apartment building will go in front of the Development Management Committee (DMC) at EDDC on August 2nd but the executive summary of the case has recommended refusal on two grounds.

Firstly: "The development proposes a more intensive residential use of a site within Flood Zone 3 [flood zones refer to the likelihood and probability of an area flooding by river or sea, ignoring the presence of defences – a Flood Zone 3 area has a high probability of flooding] and as such represents more vulnerable development in a designated high risk flood zone. . . it has not been demonstrated that the development provides wider sustainability benefits to the community that outweigh the flood risk."

Secondly: "The development by virtue of its height, proximity to and extent of projection along the western site boundary, together with its overall scale would result in an oppressive and overbearing impact on the occupiers of neighbouring properties, which coupled with the loss of light to rear gardens of properties to the west of the site, would have an unacceptable adverse impact on amenity of neighbouring occupiers."

The developers of the site had scaled down the proposed project from a 10-flat development including a penthouse on top, instead settling for eight flats over four floors and keeping the penthouse on top.

Last month Mike Dowling, Seaton Beach Developments Ltd Operations Director, told Pulman's View: "We very much want to play our part in Seaton's revival by placing a landmark, potentially award-winning, building at the heart of its seafront which is currently in need of a significant uplift. Seaton Beach (if we gain planning approval) will be a stunning, beautifully designed iconic building of the highest quality and sustainability which will make a real statement that Seaton is back in business and is not afraid to look to the future rather than the past for its inspiration."

At the time of writing, Seaton Town Council was supporting the application but said that if local residents were raising concerns then the application should be debated by the DMC.

EDDC had received 31 representations in relation to the application with 27 of these raising objections to the scheme with the other four in support.

Some of the public objections include loss of view, design out of keeping with the distinctive character of the esplanade, lack of parking provision and distraction to motorists on Harbour Road.

■ REPRESENTATIVES of Axe Valley Boules League have presented a cheque for £250 to the Devon Air Ambulance Trust in memory of Basil Dean, who was a player in the league. A league spokesperson said: "His widow Mary would like it known that this amount has been added to his funeral collection total of £1,500." TOP STORIES FROM ACROSS EAST DEVON AND SOUTH SOMERSET

AXMINSTER Council considers legal action against developers

A HOUSING developer that built an estate in Axminster is being chased for more than £650,000 by East Devon District Council (EDDC). In a statement issued on July 13th, EDDC said there has been an issue "for some time" and that legal action is being considered.

Wainhomes have built the Millbrook Meadows estate off Chard Road in three phases.

Planning permission came with a Section 106 agreement, in which developers undertake to pay an amount towards infrastructure/amenities.

An EDDC spokesperson said: "Wainhomes are legally required... to pay financial contributions totalling over £660,000 towards infrastructure required to serve the development."

"These contributions have not been paid and the council... is now considering further formal legal action to secure the required infrastructure."

OTTERY ST MARY Concerns over West Hill consultation

AN OTTERY town and district councillor has raised concerns over the consultation for the formation of an independent West Hill Parish Council and has called on the chairman of the district council, Stuart Hughes, to declare it null and void.

Councillor Peter Faithfull, who was elected onto East Devon District Council (EDDC) last year, wrote to fellow district councillors, the chairman, the monitoring officer and the chief executive asking for the result to be declared void due to the "very high amount of fraudulent and dishonest behaviour by both West Hill Campaign group and members of Ottery St Mary Town Council".

On July 13th, EDDC's Cabinet agreed to move forward with the separation of Ottery Town Council and West Hill. The decision will go in front of full council in the coming weeks and is expected to pass.

From the editor's chair More homes, more questions

THE explosion of new housing in Axminster is alarming to say the least – and, it would seem, not without its problems.

Hundreds of new homes have sprung up in recent times with dozens of more planned for the future as Westminster presses local government to release more land to meet the chronic housing need.

It would certainly seem that Axminster is taking its fair share – but is this a good thing?

Axminster is no longer just a market town; it's an ever-growing conurbation with estate after estate springing up.

And if all the stories you hear about the problems of such rapid expansion are true, the standard of workmanship is not all that it should be.

Can it really be true that one new property was demolished overnight and the site cleared before daylight?

The new estates look smart enough but there are some horror stories floating around. So what impact will all these new homes have on Axminster?

More homes means more people and one would presume this is good for the local economy. In 2011 5,761 people lived in Axminster; 7,110 when you take in the rural area. That figure is set to jump.

There seems little difficulty in getting buyers for the plethora of new homes; no sooner are they built than most of them are occupied.

But what pressure will the town's popularity put on local services? Can the schools take more pupils? Are the medical facilities in the town, with the ever-present question mark hanging over the hospital, going to be able to cope. Can the roads in and around Axminster take more traffic?

Through Section 106 planning money, which the developers have to pay, amenities should improve but getting that money is causing a few headaches for East Devon Council which is threatening legal action over the alleged non-payment of £650,000 by one developer.

Is some people's perception of Axminster being a quiet backwater (never the case) about to be blown away?

SIDMOUTH Beach plan gets £54k despite concerns

EAST Devon District Council's Cabinet has approved £54,000 worth of funding towards the Sidmouth and East Beach Management Plan which will enable the planning stage of the process to be completed.

The costs of the project had risen as a result of changes including requests from the steering group for additional work to take into account local's evidence and to provide a more detailed appraisal of the options. The steering group is made up of bodies such as the Environment Agency and Natural England, as well as community groups.

However, concerns have been raised, with two steering group members, EDDC Councillors Cathy Gardner and Matt Booth, saying "EDDC approved the options independently of the steering group, but took them to public consultation as if they had been approved by the steering group."

There is a real danger that it will not produce a result that will be approved by the Environment Agency or DEFRA and will not attract the partner funding that will be essential to deliver it.

SEATON District council set to say 'no' to seafront plans

EAST Devon District Council look set to refuse an application for a possible 'iconic' seafront development in Seaton – saying the impact on the build would have an 'oppressive and overbearing impact on the occupiers of neighbouring properties'. Plans were submitted last month by Seaton Beach Development Ltd.

Plans will go in front of the Development Management Committee (DMC) at EDDC on August 2nd but the executive summary of the case has recommended refusal.

Seaton Town Council was supporting the application but said that if locals were raising concerns then the application should be debated by the DMC.

Some of the public objections include loss of view, design out of keeping with the character of the esplanade, lack of parking provision and distraction to motorists on Harbour Road.

HONITON Surgery extension opens its doors

IT'S ALL change at Honiton Surgery, after the brand new extension was opened offering six new consultation rooms to deal with the expanding population in the town.

Sandy Wason, practice manager, said: "Finally, the scaffolding has come down, the paint is drying and we are ready to move into our new extension, which will offer six new consulting rooms, a new treatment room, a new waiting area and large meeting room. We feel we are truly 'future proofed' to manage the growing population of Honiton."

Patients were invited to have an informal look around the new facilities last week.

Mrs Wason added: "We apologise in advance for any disturbance to our normal services."

SOUTH SOMERSET Council message on hate crime

SOUTH Somerset District Council has sent out a strong message that it is proud to be part of a diverse and tolerant society and that it condemns any form of racism, xenophobia or hate crime.

Following incidents of hate crime across the country, the motion to send out this positive message was proposed by Councillor Crispin Raikes at the full council meeting on July 21st, saying: "In the wake of the recent killing of Jo Cox MP and the less savoury rhetoric of some in the referendum campaign, this council wishes to make it clear that we, the councillors, are proud to represent a vibrant and diverse community."

"We totally condemn any form of racism, intolerance, bigotry or xenophobia. Hate crimes have no place in our society and we will do all we can to prevent them. The residents of South Somerset, whatever their gender, race, creed, age, colour or sexual orientation are treated equally."

The motion was seconded by Chard Coombe district councillor Amanda Broom, following an incident when she was campaigning on behalf on remaining in the EU.

She said: "I was completely dismayed by some of the comments made by some members of the public. In one example, we were threatened with execution, with the youngest members of our group being told they should be locked in the tower for treason."

"As a response to this, post Brexit, I wrote an article in one of the local papers, stating that we needed to work hard to reassure the migrant working community in Chard that they are welcome, valued members of our society, and that as a councillor, I will do all I can to reassure them of this, and work to ensure we do not tolerate hate in our towns."

Before the proposal was met with unanimous support from the council, Councillor Broom added that South Somerset District Council should provide clear guidelines to what steps the council will take to tackle racist, xenophobic and criminal behaviour, and that it should set up a training session for councillors with SARI (Stand Against Racism and Inequality) to help councillors understand the signs of hate crimes and put the council in a better position to help tackle any problems that arise.

Waves sculpture makes a splash

THE much discussed new 'waves' sculpture has been installed on Seaton seafront..

The sculpture is part of the Discovery Points trail from Devon's newest visitor attraction, Seaton Jurassic, which opened at Easter.

The trail consists of four sculptures in the natural environment in and around Seaton.

The set of artworks aims to encourage visitors to the new tourist attraction to spend more time in the town and connect with nature.

Following the trail, explorers will learn more about the wildlife and geology of each location. The route takes people to the Seaton Wetlands, the Undercliffs, the seafront and Seaton Hole.

The stargazing circle sculpture on the Wetlands was installed in autumn 2015 and sculptures at Seaton Hole and the Undercliffs are expected to be finished later this month.

Mike Ruiter, Seaton Jurassic Centre manager, said: "Seaton is host to some spectacular natural assets, which are unfortunately largely hidden gems.

"This trail of artwork gives us the opportunity to attract new visitors to the town and make Seaton famous for its natural environment.

"Each location is interpreted by the same team behind Seaton Jurassic and extends the journey of our visitors into the landscape surrounding the centre.

"We love our story of time travel and survival, by taking that story outside we invite people to discover what makes Seaton such a great place."

Cllr Marcus Hartnell, of East Devon District Council, said: "With the opening of Seaton Jurassic we have created a high quality offer to attract more visitors to the town.

"These sculptures add to that offer and encourage people to explore all that Seaton has to offer."

Dutch student visits Seaton Wetlands for research project

SEATON Wetlands is making a name for itself on the international stage.

A student from a Dutch university has spent time in Seaton studying how volunteers help with conservation at the Wetlands.

Lisa van Aalst, an International Development student, spent two weeks in Seaton as part of an eight-week research project.

Lisa made contact with East Devon District Council's (EDDC) Countryside team to gather data on volunteering at Seaton Wetlands.

Dr Elisabet Ducholm Rasch, co-ordinator of field research at the University of Wageningen, said: "Field research plays a vital role in the university students learning.

"Around 50 students have been on placements in Devon with Lisa based in Seaton."

Lisa used Seaton Wetlands as the focus for her International Development research project, spending two weeks meeting EDDC Countryside staff and volunteers who run the wetlands for the benefit of local wildlife.

EDDC Environment portfolio holder, Councillor Iain Chubb, said: "Seaton Wetlands is East Devon's flagship site for wildlife and conservation; it is often used by local school groups and universities for field research.

"Having a visitor from an international university demonstrates the sites importance in terms of its wildlife and the role it plays in the local community – providing opportunities for improved health and wellbeing through regular exercise and volunteering."

To learn about volunteer tasks, Lisa took part in practical conservation work with EDDC's Taskforce Tuesday and met with volunteers and staff at the Countryside team to conduct interviews.

A report will be written on the important role of volunteers for conservation and development at Seaton Wetlands.

Monthly 'repair café' launches in Kilmington

A MONTHLY Repair Café has launched in Kilmington, where a team of helpers are able to mend a number of items that may have otherwise ended up in landfill.

Darrell Holmes, Pastor of the Baptist church, is one of the brains behind the scheme said: "An umbrella now lives on, some gardening tools were sharpened to cut again, a printer was brought to life and a mower now happily cuts grass once more – all for a small donation and accompanied by tea and biscuits."

"We throw away vast amounts of stuff in Britain. Even things with almost nothing wrong, and which could get a new lease on life after a simple repair. The trouble is, lots of people have forgotten that they can repair things themselves or they no longer know how. Knowing how to make repairs is a skill quickly lost. Society doesn't always show much appreciation for the people who still have this practical knowledge, and against their will they are often left standing on the side-lines."

If anyone would like to bring their broken items along, or join the Repair Team, then the next session will be at The Beacon, Whitford Rd, Kilmington on September 21st, from 3-5pm.

Refreshments are served while people wait, and if a successful repair is achieved, there is no charge, just the opportunity to make a small donation to cover costs.

For more information email events@beaconbaptist.co.uk or call Darrell Holmes on 01297 631638.

Obituary: Keith Nelson

KEITH Nelson, an American musician who lived in Axminster for 20-odd years, died on June 23rd.

Keith was at one time regarded as the best banjo player in England and was a well-known local figure, as well as being widely respected in the music business for his unique talent.

During his life he played with many famous people, with the highlight of his career probably supporting the Everly Brothers alongside Albert Lee.

In Axminster he was known for his humour and eccentricity, and he was often seen driving around town in his 1969 Ford Mustang, his pride and joy.

Keith appeared on many television shows, played on countless albums, and in later years was very well known on the Devon music circuit.

His roots were in bluegrass and from early recordings with a bluegrass band he went on to play with many great musicians.

As well as playing many instruments he was also a master craftsman, and had made several beautiful guitars and mandolins.

Keith died peacefully after a short battle with cancer and is survived by his two daughters, five grandchildren and a stepson. He had just celebrated his 70th birthday.

Teatime treat at school

GUESTS were treated to refreshments and entertainment when Axminster Community Primary Academy held its annual cream tea for friends and supporters of the school.

The event took place in the main hall on July 7th and was very well attended.

A spokesperson for the school said: "The cream tea was held to say thank you to all the volunteers, PTFA members, governors and helpers who provide invaluable support to our school and our children.

"A special thank you must go to Mrs Voysey, who has volunteered for 30 years, listening to many of our children reading.

"The children did a fantastic job of serving teas and coffees and, of course, plenty of scones, jam and cream.

Red Team takes top spot at school sports day

RED Team triumphed in the overall standings of Axminster Community Primary Academy's annual sports day.

It was a two-horse race at the top, Team Red finishing on 85 points, closely followed by Yellow Team in 83.

The sports day was held on July 8th, following a postponement in June, and a school spokesperson said: "Thankfully the rain stayed away and we were able to hold our annual Sports Day."

"The children participated in various events from sideways races and woggle races to dressing up relays and the traditional egg and spoon races."

"A huge thank you to all the parents, carers, families and friends who came to support the children."

Wellbeing centre's £8k grant for new project

AXMINSTER Health and Wellbeing Centre has received more than £8,000 to launch and run a new community project – Axminster Family Wellbeing.

The project focuses on holistic long term steps to wellbeing and aims to bring into action the World Health Organisation's definition of health: "health is a state of complete physical, mental and social wellbeing and not merely the absence of disease".

Axminster Family Wellbeing is designed to complement existing health care services in the town and surrounding areas and was awarded £8,335 from the Big Lottery Fund.

It is designed to support families, especially expectant mums and new parents, through the ups and downs of life by offering bursary funded complementary therapy treatments, support groups and other resources.

Anyone who would like to be involved with this project, particularly if they have a background and expertise in midwifery, health visiting, nursing or therapy, or are an expectant or new mum, call 01297 32331 or email info@axminsterwellbeing.com

Hosted again in Martin and Angela King's gardens, the event raised a fantastic £906.

As well as the home baked cream tea, a raffle was held alongside a local produce stall.

Julia's House children's hospice is the chosen charity of Nicola Creek, the newly elected president of Axminster Inner Wheel.

Puffins pre-schoolers enjoy visit from the police

■ THE children at Puffins pre-school really enjoyed their visit from Devon and Cornwall Police

PUFFINS of Beer Pre-School were recently visited by the local constabulary. They played a road safety game whilst dressed up in uniform and learnt about the necessity of car seats. PCSO Bolsover and PCSO

Bowden then let the children sit in the front and back of the police van, demonstrated the lights and sirens, and showed them how they make an arrest by handcuffing pre-school leader Natalie Puddicombe. The children loved the visit.

Bloom judge warning over 'timing'

A JUDGE from the South West in Bloom competition has told the Beer organising team that they need to step-up their effort when the national judges visit the village next month, writes KEVIN FAHEY.

In her first visit to the seaside village, Brenda Wright, who is based in Cornwall, admitted she had been 'bowled over' by Beer's competition entry.

But after praising President Ursula Makepeace and her team from the Beer Horticultural Society she also added a note of caution at a post-tour meeting held at Pecorama.

"This is my first visit to Beer and I think the village sings its own praises more than I can ever say in words," said Brenda.

"The village is so clean and looks so beautiful. But if I may offer some feedback, and this is not meant to be a criticism, you need to get your timing tighter.

"It did not matter to me so much today but when the Britain in Bloom judges visit Beer timing is very important. They will not be as lenient with the timetable and there is every chance that when the two hours allowed is up they will say 'time up'.

"They may still allow you to continue the tour but won't consider anything they see after the two hours as part of the entry so if you keep your best to last then it won't be counted.

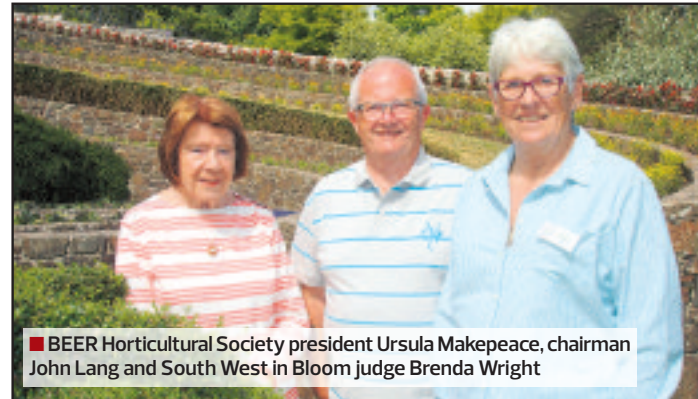

"So you have to look at your timing more critically. In a way it is sad to say that, as your enthusiasm is bursting out and I wouldn't want you to lose that but you need to get to the point more quickly.

"I am telling you that as I so desperately want to see you do well in the Britain in Bloom competition."

Afterwards Ursula said they would take Brenda's comments on board and look at their agenda for the visit of the national judges mindful that they will only have two hours to complete the tour of the village.

"Obviously it is very difficult to fit in everything but thanks to Brenda's comments we will take a closer look at the timings to make sure we don't over-run next time," said Ursula.

Fayre raises more than £1,300

SEATON Hospital League of Friends raised more than £1,300 at its annual summer fayre.

Contingency plans to hold the event indoors at short notice never had to be activated despite the odd shower on July 2nd.

Apart from traditional stalls, the fayre also featured Dr Joe Pitt and his mole clinic, hospital matron Pauline White with her Memory Matters stand, and nurses carrying out blood pressure and diabetes checks.

League of Friends manager Lycia Moore said: "Despite the intermittent showers, our volunteers raised £1,328 for the hospital and our Seaton Friends Hospiscare @ Home Service.

"I would like to say a huge thank you to all our volunteers who helped not only on the day, but getting everything ready beforehand.

"Also, thank you to everyone who came along and supported our event."

New bench marks WI's 100th anniversary

SEATON Women's Institute is marking its 100th anniversary by donating a bench to Seaton Wetlands.

The bench has been crafted by East Devon District Council (EDDC) Countryside Rangers using wood sourced from Holyford Woods, a woodland managed by the EDDC Countryside team in partnership with the Holyford Woodland Trust.

Seaton Wetlands is enjoyed by the members of the local WI group who want to encourage others to visit this local wildlife spot.

Since the Stop Line Way cycle path was installed, the site has become accessible to those with limited mobility and even offers the hire of a mobility tramper. They hope the bench will encourage visitors to stop, sit, and take in the Wetlands.

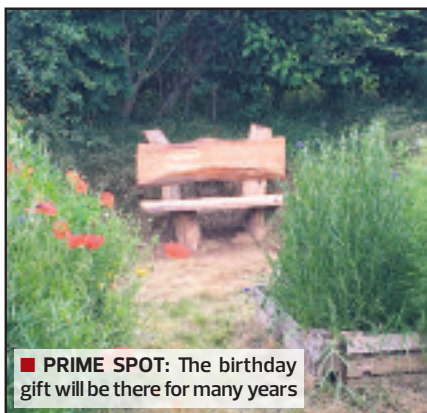

The WI bench overlooks the wildflower garden which was planted by volunteers in the new wildlife garden behind the pond dipping shelter.

The wildflower seeds were kindly donated by Goren Farm and is maintained by a group of volunteers.

Countryside team leader, Tim Dafforn, said: "We are so grateful to the WI for their kind donation.

"The bench is a great addition to the wildflower garden at Seaton Wetlands and provides the perfect spot for a relaxing picnic.

"At the moment the bench is surrounded by an amazing display of wild flowers, so come and visit soon."

■ PRIME SPOT: The birthday gift will be there for many years

President of the Seaton WI, Denise England, said: "As a group it is always nice to support something locally.

"We all enjoy the Seaton Wetlands whether for walking, wildlife spotting or as a place to take visitors for the range of events the Countryside team put on.

"We're delighted to see our bench installed and think the Countryside Rangers have created something very fitting with the Seaton Wetlands environment."

Hundreds celebrate Honiton Charter Day

ONE of Honiton biggest events was celebrated in style and summer sun as the Charter Day celebration welcomed hundreds to the Allhallows playing field on Saturday.

Revellers were able to enjoy displays by majorettes, Western Spirit linedancers, a classic car rally, a dog show run by Bordercombe Dog Training, as well as fairground rides and tasty snacks. The traditional market also ran along the high street with several other car boot sales popping up all over the town.

The event was organised by the Honiton Lions and celebrates the anniversary of Honiton being granted their Royal Charter, more than 750 years ago.

Words and photos by PETER HODGES

■ Members of the public lined up to hurl sponges at the unfortunate volunteers in the stocks

■ The Amicrofters entertained the crowds and invited members of the public to join in

■ As always, one of the more popular stalls was the plate smashing run by the Lions

■ The Honiton Lions, who organised the event, were also selling tickets for their famous Duck Derby. The Lions will be out in force on the high street over the next couple of weeks, so make sure you pick up your tickets

Nepal student update

AXMINSTER PHOENIX LADIES CLUB: Liz Rutter recently told of how the club's sponsored student, Aita Kumari, is faring at the Jana Jyoti Secondary School in Baglung Pani, Lamjung district, Nepal.

Members have sponsored Aita for some years and were delighted to learn she is a keen student, studious and respectful, who has worked hard and will be taking exams in March 2017, equivalent to the GCSE certificate in the UK.

After her finals, Aita will move to stay with family in a local town to study for A-levels (known as 10+2). She aims to attend University and help support her family who are farmers.

Frequent speakers Liz and Canon Claude Rutter have been involved with the school for over 20 years. Liz has also helped develop the first pre-school in the area. A further school for 4-6 year-olds has also opened Ghale Gaon.

The Chairman informed new members that the club has corresponded with Aita, sending her information about Axminster and the club. Further updates were suggested with photographs of members and more about their lives in Devon. After the meeting, members collected £40 which was handed to Liz Rutter. This will be transferred to the School's account in Nepal for use where the need is greatest.

Thanks are extended to Liz for coming along at short notice and also for reporting on the current situation in Kathmandu, where people are still living in tents following the devastating earthquakes last year. She will be welcomed back next year, telling more of her long involvement with the school and the trekking trips she organised in Nepal over a number of years from 1985.

With no meeting in August, the next meeting will be on September 14th, when guest speaker Sally Raynes' talk is entitled 'Whacky Nation'. 2.30 pm at the URC Hall; visitors always welcome.

EVENT director Sally Raynes and her company, Wacky Nation, have moved to Axminster.

Wacky Nation has worked with towns and festival across the UK for eight years, creating imaginative events to entertain the whole family.

Events include the World Gnome Bowling Championship, devised in Letchworth, the annual World Christmas Cracker Throwing Championship created for Tiverton Town Team, crumpet frisbee at Devizes Food Festival and a Chilli Chuckin' Challenge set to take place at Salisbury Food Festival this year.

● Where were you born and where did you grow up?

I was born in Surrey but moved to Tiverton when I was seven for a great countryside upbringing.

● What was your dream job during childhood?

I wanted to be a children's TV presenter, particularly on something like Blue Peter where you could take part in lots of fun new experiences.

● What was your first job?

My father taught us the value of money early in life so instead of pocket money we were paid a wage to do jobs and we would get a wage rise each year on our birthday.

● You now run Wacky Nation. In short, who else is involved, how did the company start and what is it all about?

Having taken part in 100 wacky contests around the UK and written a guidebook on how to win, we decided it was time to devise some of our own.

Wacky Nation now works with town centres and festivals around the UK creating fun and entertaining world championships and wacky contests for their attendees. For instance we are planning a Halloween festival in East Devon and we run the sell-out UK Rock Paper Scissors Championship.

James Bamber comes up with the crazy ideas and then we have a wonderful team of professional event managers who freelance for us across the UK.

● Where do you see Wacky Nation in five years' time?

Running very successful twice-yearly family festivals with a twist; featuring off-the-wall contests such as crumpet frisbee and pumpkin bowling, which will also support local community projects.

● What made you move to Axminster?

We felt the local area would be a great location for a new fun-themed food, drink and entertainment festival as there seems to be lots of exciting regeneration plans.

● Favourite food and tippie?

I love food, so it's hard to find one answer but if I had to choose it would be lasagne with a nice glass of red wine.

● What makes you happy?

Swimming in the sea with a bunch of friends and then going for a drink in a lovely pub afterwards.

● What makes you not so happy or angry?

The inequality all around. Life is so much more enriching when we think of others.

● What would you do if you won an obscene amount of money?

Reinvest the money into the business to make a really successful festival and share it with charities and community projects that I support.

Devon Air Ambulance: "canvassers not ours"

DEVON Air Ambulance would like to clarify that the canvassers for a will writing service, fundraising on behalf of County Air Ambulance are not linked in any way with the charity.

For some months Devon Air Ambulance (DAA) has been receiving calls and enquiries from supporters and members of the public about 'its' will service and 'its' canvassers, but in fact, DAA has nothing to do with these canvassers or the will writing service.

Helena Holt, Chief Executive of Devon Air Ambulance, said: "We are receiving more and more calls from our supporters asking questions about our will writing service but we don't have one. Some callers have made donations thinking they were supporting Devon Air Ambulance when in fact it was County Air Ambulance Trust. These sales teams have been attending supermarkets and large retail stores for many months promoting a scheme that offers a free will writing service in return for a donation. Some of our supporters contacted us as they had not had an acknowledgment of their donation. Others told us about the manner in which the sales people had approached them. The one thing all callers have in common is that they thought this scheme was run by or supporting Devon Air Ambulance."

Helena added: "County Air Ambulance Trust is a fundraising organisation. It is a registered charity whose accounts, available from the Charity Commission website, show that the funds it raises are set aside specifically to benefit Midlands Air Ambulance and Great Western Air Ambulance or to go into general funds. These general funds are used to support provision of hospital helipad facilities across the UK or any other charitable purpose in line with their objects. They part-funded Derriford Hospital's new helipad, but do not support Devon Air Ambulance in any way and are not involved in our work with local communities to establish landing sites for night operations. We have asked County Air Ambulance to make it explicitly clear to people that they are not linked to our service in any way, but from the number of calls we are still receiving it seems this is not happening."

The leaflets used by the canvassers County Air Ambulance are very similar to Devon Air Ambulance literature and the logo features a red helicopter with blue detail, like the Devon aircraft, the only ones in the country with this colour combination. The name County Air Ambulance is non-specific and could easily be assumed to relate to the county the sales people happen to be in.

Robert Bertram, Chief Executive of the HELP Appeal, the canvassers working with the County Air Ambulance who are being mistaken for the DAA said: "Our HELP Appeal charity works closely with air ambulances across the country to help support the hospitals and the emergency services. We do work hard to avoid confusion, clearly highlighting and raising awareness of our support as the HELP Appeal and what we aim to achieve."

Devon Air Ambulance suggest that if you are ever in doubt about someone who appears to be raising funds for Devon Air Ambulance ask to see their ID badge or a call DAA and they can verify their identity or set your mind at rest.

Call on 01392 466666, email info@daat.org or contact them via the website at www.daat.org/contact if you have any concerns.

Not cooperation but appeasement

THE intemperate language used by Derek Burch in his rant concerning the Brexit result in your issue of July 5th does nothing to gain sympathy for his cause.

He suggests that we should have cooperated with the EU, rather than antagonise them.

Cooperate in what way? By turning a blind eye to the endemic corruption within the EU? By accepting the Common Agricultural Policy with all its faults? By joining the Euro, a project which is doomed to failure, which has impoverished Greece for a generation and left other member countries on the brink of economic disaster? To allow European Courts to overrule our own laws? To accept without complaint the myriad pieces of petty legislation which cripple our small businesses? To go along with the farce whereby the EU packs its bags once every month and sends its 3,000 employees to Strasbourg, just to please the French? To do so would be a betrayal of the hard-working people of the United Kingdom.

This is not cooperation – it is appeasement.

DONALD JONES,
Honiton

Don't compare Brexit result to Somme

DURING the weeks leading up to the 23rd June, I read with some amusement and incredulity the ever more shrill missives from Mr Derek Sturch.

His latest communication, published on 5th July, has finally prompted me to respond.

Having just commemorated the 100th anniversary of the commencement of the Battle of the Somme, I cannot believe that I am alone in finding it extremely distasteful that he should equate the result of a democratic process with the bloodiest campaign in our history. When I last looked, no one had died as a result of the vote held two weeks ago, nor are they likely to. Although I do have concerns for Mr Sturch's health, suffering as he would seem to, from bouts of hysteria.

I am sure that with some thought, I could provide some choice words with which to give clues as to the identity of some of the foremost advocates for the Remain campaign. To do this in a public forum would only lower me to Mr Sturch's level and so I shall resist the temptation.

The Referendum to gain back for our country the ability for self determination was one of the most democratic processes the majority of the population will have experienced. It would appear, however, that perhaps he is another of that minority (mainly, I would observe, from the 'Remainers' both in and outside Westminster) who espouse the democratic process, but with the codicil of 'only if it provides the result which suits me'.

Suffice it to say that Remain lost. Leave won – live with it! And, try to show some faith in this country and its people rather than continuing to talk it down. We can see in the short term, the detrimental effect of that negativity!

Now, please let us hear no more from him on this topic.

ROGER GREAVES,
Thorncombe, Chard

Respect for Sturgeon

I APOLOGISE to Mrs Jean Bright for my "Buffoon, Yob and Weazel" description of Johnson, Farage and Gove but they do pale into obvious insignificance against her "Fishwife" description of Nicola Sturgeon in last week's View From.

A "fishwife" who can command 62 per cent of Scotland's vote to stay in Europe and still remain one of the UK's most respected politicians in recent popularity polls would get my vote anytime. And I can't even claim to have any Scottish blood in my veins at all.

World-class musicians due to play Branscombe Festival

ORGANISERS of Branscombe Festival say the event will combine world-class musicians with an idyllic countryside setting from July 29th-31st.

Over three summer days, leading classical and opera artists perform in the village's most picturesque venues, with cream tea served on Saturday afternoon and a hog roast that evening.

The festival will culminate in a free concert on Branscombe beach by Camborne Town Band. Branscombe Festival was launched in July 2013 by local resident Ian Rosenblatt.

His aim was to mirror the ethos of the Rosenblatt Recitals by enabling audiences to experience leading international musicians in an intimate setting.

Mr Rosenblatt says: "I'm thrilled to announce that Branscombe Festival is back for its fourth year, with a packed weekend of opera, classical music and, for the first time, cabaret, all in this beautiful beachside setting."

Wonderful show

I HAVE just come back from the amazing performance of 'The Olde Tyme Music Hall' at The Gateway and I cannot believe how wonderful and professional it was.

I have watched many shows at The Gateway and they have all been great but the atmosphere in the hall tonight was so uplifting and I felt a real community spirit, and I went home so happy.

The best bits were the songs that made the audience sing along, the costumes looked fabulous and it was so funny, it made me cry with laughter.

When the audience were leaving all I could hear in the foyer were couples saying that they could watch the whole show again.

Apology to Seaton

DEAR Seaton Residents and visitors to the town.

I have failed. I became a Seaton Town Councillor for two reasons. The first, to try to make the council see sense over the abomination that now devastates our seafront at Fishermans Gap. Just when we thought it had been forgotten about the so called 'art sculpture' of two metal waves appears at the entrance to the beach. They have no relevance to the area, the town, to art or even to Seaton Jurassic and at £17,000 is a waste of public money.

The second reason. This monstrosity is now the main and, aside from the metal figures on the roundabout, only public 'art' in Seaton, which is a ridiculous situation if we are to have any sort of cultural offer. As a councillor my aim now is to encourage more public art and art events that involve local artists who have an affinity with the town, and local people who, have to see these artworks every day, as part of the process.

I am so, so sorry this could not be stopped.

Seaton

Axminster footpath

RE: Steve Downton's letter in July 5th's Axminster paper, regarding Bovis moving the footpath.

I understood they only got the planning permission to build the houses, when they promised to widen the footpath. I understood that moving such a long standing footpath they would have to apply to a much higher authority than a county council.

I have tried to use the new directions with my dog but as I am 76 and in poor cardiac health I found that I could not walk up the hill to the cemetery gates, which if I had done I would then have to try to cross the Chard Road with all those heavy lorries taking a short cut between the A30 and A35, there is no zebra crossing as before. I tried it in the car and found it could take up to 10 minutes to turn right into Brewer Road and then one had to dodge many builders lorries, still coming in, to reach to original footpath.

Shute Primary School open day

GWENDA Easton, a 90-year-old local resident and active member of the parish, was invited to be the Queen for the day when Shute Community Primary School threw its doors open.

The open day was held to celebrate the Queen's recent birthday and Gwenda rose to the occasion, resplendent in a blue suit and seated on a throne made by the children.

Pupils themselves dressed in red, white and blue, entertained everyone with maypole dancing before inviting everyone on to the field for a massive Cassian Circle.

Ten wooden troughs bedded out with red, white and blue flowers planted up specially for the occasion framed the grounds.

Every child brought a plate of food to share

ENTHRONED: Gwenda Easton reigned in Shute for the day and the older children ran stalls for their enterprise projects.

The school also had a collection of old school log books on show and a small collection of old photographs of the school.

Collecting old photos is an ongoing project, and a school spokesperson said: "If you have any old, or not so old, pictures of the school, please email admin@shuteprimary.co.uk or bring them to the school."

School sports day at Membury

MEMBURY Primary Academy's sports day was held on July 14th at Membury playing fields.

The children had a fantastic afternoon in mixed-age teams.

The Parent Teachers Association organised greatly-appreciated refreshments for children and parents.

Open gardens success

BRENDA and Allen Parkman opened their Musbury garden for two afternoons over the weekend of July 16th and 17th in aid of the Cancer Trust Fund and Breast Care Unit at the Royal Devon & Exeter Hospital.

Brenda said: "We were blessed with brilliant weather and a steady flow of people on both afternoons who donated so generously, as did those who couldn't make it. A very friendly atmosphere and much banter between the gardeners was enjoyed."

"We would like to thank all who came and those who gave amazing draw prizes and to the special ladies who ran the draw and served the teas. All these people helped us raise an amazing amount of £1,330 which will be divided equally between the two charities at the RD&E."

A recent national survey revealed that when the British go on holiday at home, the overwhelming majority don't want to eat like Masterchef. Contrary to what fancy restaurants and clever chefs believe, when it comes to holiday meals most Brits taking a break in Britain simply want to eat traditionally.

And according to the CSM poll, their holiday favourites are:

1. Fish and chips [the top meal for 61%]
2. Bacon butties.
3. Roast dinner.

So it's lucky for those who come to Seaton, then, that Daisys' Café in Harbour Road is the mistress of all three.

Super-smart Lynne Derrick realised the preference for home-cooked, simple favourites when she opened Daisys' Café in 2013 and concentrated on freshly-making what people want to eat. So that's a roast every Sunday lunch and fish and chips and bacon butties always available at all other times.

Consequently, Daisys' Café has become an instant hit with locals and its first summer is set to be a bumper one as visitors flock to the café and ice cream kiosk for every bit of what they fancy; big, tasty sandwiches, deep-filled jacket potatoes, all-day breakfast and all of the other proper British seaside treats.

All of our food is fresh, locally-supplied and perfectly-prepared by Lynne and her team to eat inside or outside or takeaway for breakfast, lunch and tea – and cream teas here are a particular treat as Lynne bakes all the scones and cakes herself.

DON'T MISS OUT ON THE CELEBRATIONS AT THE NEW INN KILMINGTON ON SATURDAY 6TH AUGUST FROM 2PM

A great day is planned with something for all the family including Live Music, Full outside bar, Hog roast, bouncy castle and fun and games throughout the whole afternoon.

MANDY and Carey Chant have been the licensees of the New Inn Kilminster since December 2014.

The couple made the decision to leave the Axminster Inn when seeing their dream village pub become available. They have thoroughly enjoyed the change of pace, after spending the past two years providing a meeting place for the locals and visitors.

A staple menu of pub favourites is available; dishes are freshly cooked to order by Mandy and the team, from locally sourced and home grown produce. New Inn Sunday roasts are extremely popular, so bookings are always advisable.

The appeal of the pub this time of year is also the large beer garden with far reaching views of the Axe Valley.

Mandy and Carey offer catering for all functions and families and dogs are welcome in the pub, their three friendly, little dogs have proved to be a bit of an attraction themselves!

Mandy and Carey look forward to your visit.

HONITON Agricultural Show

WHERE FARMING COMES FIRST

Open times: 8am to 6pm - www.honitonshow.co.uk

THE 126TH HONITON AGRICULTURAL SHOW - THURSDAY 4TH AUGUST 2016

JOIN THE FESTIVITIES AT HONITON AGRICULTURAL SHOW

THE Honiton & District Agricultural Association hold their 126th show on Thursday, 4th August 2016. The Grand Parade is one of the many highlights of the main ring activities where the day's livestock winners proudly parade. The 2016 main ring will be a hive of activity; fantastic acts including top FMX Rider Jamie Squibb. "The Sheep Show" returns to Honiton with its humorous, educational, live stage show all about sheep, 9 breeds will be presented and not to miss is the sheep shearing and their "dancing sheep"! We welcome a first time attraction to Honiton Stuart Barnes and his Dog and Duck Show. Stuart has travelled to over 100 countries working with wildlife; in his show the team use trained and untrained sheep dogs to herd ducks educating the audience about common dog behaviour issues and how to resolve them. The show demonstrates how poorly behaved dogs still have a programmed natural instinct, giving the audience a new understanding of the Way of the Dog.

For 2016 we have a new facility Rest and Refresh - a marquee offering space to sit rest and enjoy drinks and homemade biscuits. This will be run by the Anglican Churches and will further offer

Mother and baby facilities together with Children's activities.

The lower field incorporates all that is countryside with hurdle making, ferret racing, a blacksmiths guild and a trip down memory lane with a vintage tractor section with nearly 100 vehicles on display. Honiton plays host to the West of England Hound Show, a show within a show, which attracts a huge following countryside. There is the wonderful dog show comprising both pedigree and fun classes for the pet pooch. If chickens are your interest we have a fantastic Poultry show and sale. We have entertainment in abundance for children with Professor Twistopher's Punch and Judy, as seen on the hugely popular and wildly acclaimed television series Downton Abbey or maybe a donkey ride will interest. With over 400 trade stands, including crafts, shopping and a fabulous food hall there really is something for everyone. We have a huge and diverse range of food courts to tickle your taste buds with local caterers offering the very best produce; why not start with a delicious bacon roll lunch with a Dartmoor Farmer's Beef Burger from Kenniford and end the day with a refreshing Pimms from local Otter Brewery. Honiton prides itself on being a truly traditional agricultural show with a unique atmosphere it brings new and traditional agriculture together so make a note in the diary, 4th August, we all look forward to welcoming you. Don't forget accompanied under 16's are free.  Open times: 8am to 6pm - www.honitonshow.co.uk

THE 126TH HONITON AGRICULTURAL SHOW - THURSDAY 4TH AUGUST 2016

HISTORY OF THE SHOW

THE first Honiton Show was held in 1890, the 54th year of Queen Victoria's reign in fields on Bramble Hill, Honiton.

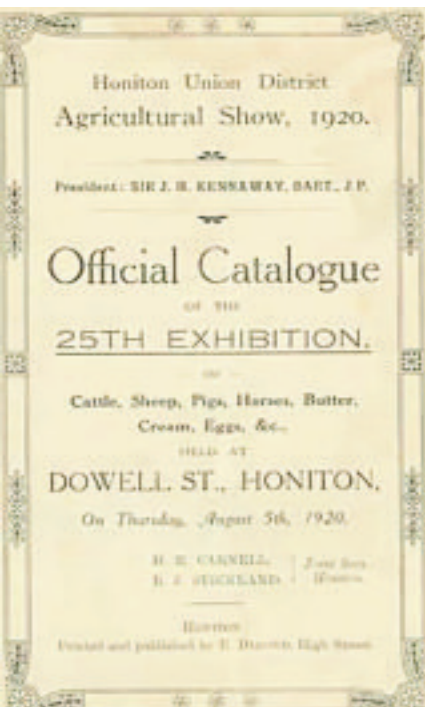

The Association was then named The Honiton Union District Store Cattle and Poultry Association. Its first president was Viscount Sidmouth. That year the show was held on 2nd October, with admission costing one shilling and a grand after show dinner at the Dolphin Hotel.

Thirty years and a world war later, in 1920 the show moved to Dowell Street and the association was re-named Honiton Union District Agricultural Association. After the second world war in 1946 the classes included Labourers Long Service Awards and judging of the Hunting Hounds. Poultry classes disappeared and dairy cattle were very low on entries; This was due to the rationing taking effect during the war. The year 1948 saw the introduction of The West Of England Hound Show. This was the beginning of what is now one of the largest and most prestigious Hound Shows in the country.

The association, now known as Honiton & District Agricultural Association, celebrated its centenary in 1990 as a limited company and held a special show to commemorate with some 290 trade stands and compared with closer to over 400 in 2013. The association has come a long way since 1890 and is ready for the next one hundred years!

Axmouth Village Show

• Saturday 30th July 2016 • Coombe Field, Axmouth •

74TH AXMOUTH VILLAGE SHOW

THE Axmouth Village Show is in its 74th year and we are expecting that the local communities competitive spirit in the fields of Horticulture, Home Baking, Crafts, Photography, Flower Arranging and Children's creativity have not wavered since the success of last years event. This spirit is the driving force behind the commitment of the show Committee to deliver a show that the village can be proud of.

The committee hope that villagers, locals and visitors to our part of Devon, all come along to the show this Saturday to see the fine exhibits on show in the main marquee. The show's theme this year is "The Heart" and individual representations of this theme should be displayed within many of the exhibits on show in the main marquee. These will be showcasing the objective of this year's show, which is to purchase a Heart Defibrillator for the Axmouth community. This will be located outside the Church hall and be accessible by anyone in an emergency.

As with last year, we have tried to focus on bringing Devon based produce, entertainment and services to the show for all to the community to enjoy.

The main show ring attractions are Johnathan Marshall Dancing Stallions & Falconry Display, Seaton's Martial Arts Company presenting a Martial Arts display, the always popular children's races, with the Dog Show Finale closing the events in the main arena.

"Shannon Turner" will be entertaining all the visitors in the main marquee all afternoon with her own brand of local music.

Local stall holders will have a selection of local produce and entertainments for you to peruse and enjoy. We have a locally sourced BBQ and a Pizza Van for hot food, with the Axmouth & Seaton Ladies supplying tea & cakes in the tent besides the licenced bar which should, all in all, keep you refreshed during the afternoon.

After the prize giving presentation, donated show exhibits from the main marquee will be auctioned off, so please stay all afternoon and grab a bargain.

There is no evening entertainment on offer on the show ground this year, but our local hostellers (The Harbour Inn & The Ship Inn) are hosting events into the night for the community, so please make it a whole day in Axmouth and enjoy our welcome and hospitality.

Please come along to the show and have a fun afternoon. See you there.

LOOK GOOD FEEL GREAT

West of England Laser Centre

Q. I HAVE a mole next to my nose which I have often thought about having removed. I am going on a cruise in August to celebrate my 50th wedding anniversary and wondered if I would be able to have the treatment before then?

A. Yes, you have plenty of time to have this treatment before your cruise. Initially you would need to come for a Consultation with our Surgeon on a Monday evening or a Wednesday afternoon at the Nuffield Hospital in Taunton. You can make an appointment by telephoning 01823 331773 or by emailing lasercentre@lineone.net. Following the consultation we can book you in for your treatment, usually within a couple of weeks, if you wish to go ahead.

Q. I have always wanted to have this done... but always been a little nervous how painful is the treatment?

A. Please do not be nervous, this treatment is very painless and straight forward. Our Surgeon will inject a small amount of local anaesthetic into the area prior to treatment. The laser is very precise and targets only the mole itself and does not affect any of the surrounding skin. When the anaesthetic wears off you may feel a slight discomfort or stinging, this is fairly mild but if you do wish to take paracetamol this will help.

Q. During the cruise I will be exposed to the sun, will I still be able to do this following treatment?

A. We would always recommend using a high factor sun cream whenever you are exposed to the sun, especially on the treated area. You would need to wait 2 or 3 weeks for the skin to be fully healed before you go into the sun but the high factor sun cream will not only protect the more sensitive, treated area but will also help prevent further sun damage.

Traditional Acupuncture - Val Davis

Acupuncture can improve and maintain health and energy and enhance a sense of well-being

ACCORDING to traditional Chinese philosophy, our health is dependent on the body's motivating energy (qi) moving in a smooth and balanced way through a series of channels beneath the skin.

Acupuncture can affect the quality of qi, your body's vital energy, by the insertion of very fine needles into specific points along these channels. This stimulates the body's healing response and restores natural balance. Treatment is aimed at the root cause of your condition as well as your main symptoms. This approach helps with resolving your problem and enhancing your feeling of well-being. You may notice other nagging problems resolve as your main health complaint improves.

The type of conditions that I mostly see in my clinics include the following: arthritis, back pain and sciatica, poor circulation, low energy levels, hormonal/menopausal symptoms, pregnancy management, fertility problems, weight management, and addictions such as smoking. However, you don't have to be ill in the conventional sense to benefit from acupuncture, sometimes people come to see me because they are feeling low, unwell in themselves, or maybe not sleeping as well as they would like to.

Professional Acupuncturists spend at least 3 years training at degree level to become an Acupuncturist. We are then entitled to join the British Acupuncture Council and to use the letters Lic.Ac., B.Ac.C after our names. We also have public liability and professional indemnity insurance. Many of us have also studied at post-graduate level and are constantly updating our skills and experience.

So, why not give me a ring and see if I can help.

5 REASONS TO EAT MORE CARROTS

By Sophie Nutt, Press Association

THINK carrots should be left to rabbits? You couldn't be more wrong. When your parents told you to 'eat your carrots', they were definitely onto something. It will come as a surprise to know just how good they are for you - on the inside and out.

Here are five reasons to nibble on more carrots...

See in the Dark

The old wives' tale that eating carrots will help you see in the dark isn't actually that much of a myth. Carrots contain a high level of beta-carotene, which the human body converts into Vitamin A. Although this isn't enough to cure existing problems, the level of Vitamin A found in beta-carotene helps protect the surface of the eye from any future damage. "[The Age-Related Eye Disease Study] shows that higher levels of Vitamin C, Vitamin E, beta-carotene, and zinc reduced the risk of age-related macular degeneration (AMD) by 25% in those at higher risk," says Dr Carrie Ruxton, member of the Health Supplements Information Service (www.hs.is.org).

Reduce the Risk of Cancer

A natural pesticide found in carrots called falcarninol is said to guard you from cancer when eaten on a regular basis. "Carrots contain powerful antioxidants known as carotenoids. Research has shown that carotenoids have powerful cancer-fighting properties. Skin, breast and prostate cancers are thought to be the cancers that can benefit the most from an ample intake of carotenoids," says nutrition expert, Julie Montagu (www.juliemontagu.com). "One large carrot contains 15,503 micrograms of beta-carotene, which is a certain type of carotenoid. Only a handful of other foods have higher doses of this cancer-fighting compound." Juicing your carrots or eating them raw seems to be the best way of getting the proper amount of falcarninol into your diet, whereas boiling the vegetable results in a 70% reduction of the natural chemical.

Heart Protection

As well as beta-carotene, carrots contain alpha carotene and lutein, both of which have heart-protecting properties. Even beta-carotene itself is an antioxidant and stops the oxidation of bad cholesterol. This all helps to reduce the risk of a heart attack and, instead, boost heart health. In contrast to eating them raw for their carotenoids, to extract the maximum amount of antioxidants carrots have to offer, try boiling them, as it's easier for our bodies to benefit from their goodness this way.

Memory Game

As we get older, 'free radicals' try to attack healthy cells in our bodies and if you don't put up a fight, you'll experience a loss of memory as you age. "The beta carotene in carrots are an important flavonoid compound and therefore have powerful antioxidant functions that help the body scavenge free radicals. Due to this, beta carotene limits damage to cell membranes," says Shona Wilkinson, head nutritionist at NutriCentre (www.nutricentre.com). "Free radical damage is part of the ageing process and it therefore makes sense that by limiting this as much as possible, you reduce the incidence of health conditions as you age."

Glowing Skin

Carrots look after your skin, too. They are a cheap and healthy way to keep your skin looking vibrant, as their antioxidants and vitamin C battle pesky free radicals that could otherwise cause damage to your complexion. Vitamin C also helps aid collagen production in the body, helping prevent wrinkles and stalling the ageing process. Carotenoids also condition and hydrate the skin, as well as enhance immunity against harmful sun rays.

Bowen Therapy & Energy Healing

A Medicine Called Energy!

AS remarkable as the intelligence of your body and the energies and energy fields that animate it, this intelligence, this guidance system, evolved for a planet that in many ways no longer exists. It is still attuned to an environment with no pollutants in the air or food, no crowded appointment books, no jet travel, no email tyranny, no danger of not getting exercise, no conflict between your career or children. Evolution could not have possibly anticipated the sedentary, information saturated, polluted world in which your body is trying to thrive.

If we want to thrive in the world we actually inhabit, a new set of adaptations, a new vibration beyond your bodies ancient strategies, needs to be introduced.

The underlying principle of Energy Medicine is that by changing your vibration in your body you can change the actions of its chemistry, helping it best adapt to the strange new world in which we all live. You can evolve your body by changing its energy habits.

Energy Medicine takes you on a personal tour of your body as an energy system and it offers simple energy tools you can use to help your body function at its best. These tools are generally more precise, often more effective and certainly less invasive than medication or surgery. They can also be self applied, are 24/7, and are free. You will be shown how to tap into your intuition, embrace your natural self healing abilities and acquire new tools for assessing and optimizing your health.

Therapy of the Month

Homeopathy – Linda Lester RSHOM, LCCH

Homeopathy was discovered in the 18th century by a German medical doctor. He realised that there were two ways of treating illness, the way of opposites and the way of similars.

If you go to your doctor because you have acid indigestion your doctor may prescribe you an antacid or a medication that reduces the amount of acid your stomach produces. This is the way of opposites. A homeopath would try to find a remedy that would produce similar symptoms to that which you are experiencing and treat you with a minute dose of that substance; this is the law of similars, treating like with like.

The philosophy of homeopathy is based on a process of looking at the person as a whole, rather than specific conditions in isolation.

Homeopathic medication, often called remedies is overall safe and non-toxic as only minute amounts of active ingredients are used in their preparation. The homeopath will take a thorough history from you to understand your exact symptoms and will consider all aspects of your lifestyle and current health problems in order to find the right remedy for you.

I offer a range of treatments from a simple nail cut to nail surgery, and each treatment plan is priced accordingly.

The nail cutting only service is a shorter appointment and is ideal for those that don't have any other foot care needs. Patients feet are then monitored during treatment so that changes can be made should the need arise.

Diabetic patients who attend for chiropody will also have a diabetic foot assessment carried out during their first treatment, and will then be monitored and re-assessed as necessary.

6 TIPS FOR TRAVELLING WITH DEMENTIA

By Kate Whiting, Press Association

HOLIDAYS can revive the body and soul, and even a few days away from the stresses, demands and humdrum of daily life can work wonders.

Thousands of UK families are living with dementia - associated with progressive memory loss, difficulty with thinking and language and carrying out everyday tasks - and experts predict that by 2025, the number of people diagnosed will reach a million.

Although getting away on holiday might be more difficult when a family member or loved one has the condition, the charity Dementia UK (www.dementiauk.org) has outlined some simple steps to make travelling with people with dementia go more smoothly...

1. Make sure you have medical insurance and take all of the documentation with you in case of a medical emergency. If you're holidaying in Europe, have an EHIC card - a free European Health Insurance card (visit www.gov.uk/european-health-insurance-card) Prior to going on holiday, do some research so you know where the local doctors' surgeries and hospitals are located.

2. Ensure the person with dementia has ID and emergency contact details on them at all times. If they get lost, it will be easier for someone to get in contact with you. Potentially, consider a personal GPS that the person with dementia can wear.

3. Orientation is a challenge for someone living with dementia and being in an unfamiliar location could cause disorientation. Give the person with dementia a plan of the building and also walk them around the building you are staying in when you first arrive. Print out some signage that you can put up around your accommodation, like toilet/ bathroom, bedroom, kitchen etc.

4. Plan your activities for in the morning as the person with dementia is likely to get tired as the day progresses and tiredness can cause disorientation. Also, don't plan too many activities as this can cause tiredness and exhaustion, leading to disorientation and potentially agitation.

5. Portable low-level lights, that are easy to pack, will help during the night, should the person with dementia wake up and become disorientated by where they are staying. You can also get apps on your phone which provide night light.

6. Keep an eye on the person with dementia for signs of distress and anxiety. They may be feeling it, but not telling you as they don't want to ruin your holiday.

Stress describes the feelings people experience when the demands made upon us are greater than the ability to manage them...

HELPING you to take control of your life.

Stress describes what most people experience when the demands made upon individuals are greater than the ability to manage them. People can feel overloaded, under tremendous pressure and feel tense or emotional.

Stress affects everyone, young and old and is a completely normal reaction that will be experienced by everyone from time to time when faced with new or challenging situations.

External stressors are sources of stress that we are aware of around us, these can include traumas, life experiences or simply daily hassles. Internal stressors are the sources of stress that are inside us and are often the most common sources of stress. They are the thoughts and feelings that pop into the head and cause unease, these can include unrealistic expectations, uncertainties, low self-esteem and apprehensions.

The work place is also known to be a big influence in stress. A study found that more than half of people in work suffer from stress over a period of a year, and statistics show that a quarter of workers have taken time off sick due to stress and that stress is the leading cause of sick leave. Common causes of stress at work include; workloads, long hours, responsibilities, role expectations, bullying or harassment, lack of job security, poor working environment, and lack of support.

Stress can manifest itself as many different symptoms, ranging from physical to psychological and behavioural, and people may experience these to varying degrees. Physical symptoms can include; increased heart rate, sweaty palms, muscle tension, sleep disturbance, fatigue, vomiting, change in breathing patterns, dry mouth, headaches, nausea or dizziness, indigestion or heartburn and sudden weight loss or gain. Psychological symptoms can include anxious thoughts, irritability, low self esteem and confidence, inability to concentrate, feeling fearful, feeling unable to cope, difficulty making decisions, feeling negative and lack of interest in life, feeling alone, loss of creativity, withdrawal, frustration and confusion. Behavioural symptoms can include interrupted or lack of sleep, use of drugs or alcohol, a changes in appetite, avoiding situations, changing habits, nail biting, teeth grinding, neglect of physical appearance, lack of communication, putting off difficult jobs and giving excuses.

The first step in helping to manage the stress that you experience is to recognise what is happening is a natural response, then changing it. Michelle Hague is here to help you take control of your life.

Clinical Hypnotherapy can help to reduce stress and cognitive behavioural therapy and mindfulness have all been used to treat it. For more information or to see if Michelle can help you call 07761773563.

Tip Top Trees

TIP Top Trees offer a comprehensive range of expert tree services from trees with preservation orders, roadside and dangerous trees to fruit tree pruning and we also sell barn stored seasoned logs. With a friendly team of skilled operatives who always leave every site Tip Top tidy. Sean and his team are all qualified in arboriculture meaning they have studied the science of trees as well as the use of practical machinery.

This can make all the difference as they know when and how to best carry out work to your trees. One satisfied customer said "Mr Kelly has the ability to "see" how a tree should look in its setting. This enables him and his efficient workmates to change a scruffy tree into an elegant addition to the garden.

Unlike many workers he always leaves the site in a tidy condition". Sean also holds an Advanced Arboricultural Technician qualification so, if you have a tree in an awkward space or near buildings, Sean will know the safest and best way to carry out the work.

TIP TOP TREES have been established for 18 years offering high quality tree care to BS3998 (2010). We offer a free site survey with no obligation please call on 01404 47103 or email on info@tiptoptrees.co.uk. See our website www.tiptoptrees.co.uk for references and a portfolio of our work.

Eden Garden Developments

Eden Garden Fencing and Landscaping

AT EDEN Garden Fencing and Landscaping based in Seaton, Devon we have been building and installing quality Fencing, Gates and Decking, along with Landscaping, for some 15 years. This makes finding a Fencing Contractor simple by providing for all clients' requirements, large and small locally. The timber products side of Landscapers, Eden Garden Developments, offers a friendly, professional, integrated service and the Seaton, Devon base covers a 30 mile radius.

A timely example, given the present gusty conditions, is Garden Fencing, where this can be replaced or repaired, depending upon condition and the budget available. This can be either Close Board, Panel (with or without Trellis), Post and Rail or Picket Fencing. Eden Garden Fencing and Landscaping also supply and fit Gates (see insets). Whilst we take pride in installing robust and durable fencing products, "cost leadership" is still at the forefront of the business, whilst keeping quality and the principles of design foremost. Much of the work can be done during Autumn and Winter when the ground is less compacted and this time is also perfect for renovating the garden generally. So by Spring many garden improvements can be ready to be enjoyed.

There is now a dedicated Timber Products website, www.edengardenfencing.co.uk, giving examples of the range and quality of workmanship. Additionally, information can be obtained by calling 01297 23596 (mobile 07977 415446) or visiting the general web pages at www.a1-environmental.com

Greenshutters Nurseries

GREENSHUTTERS Nurseries & Garden Centre is a family run business nestled in the heart of the Somerset countryside. It is open 7 days a week and stocks an extensive range of plants. The Garden Centre has completely changed in the last few years with the layout being completely re-designed. There are new entrances from the road and into the Plant Area and the old-fashioned wooden greenhouse has been restored to its former glory with its bright, white painted wood. Most of the plants are now on tables so you don't have to bend down to look at them and the layout has been designed to make the walk around the plant area enjoyable.

This year Greenshutters Garden Centre is stocking a much larger range of herbaceous perennials and roses, including new and unusual varieties. There is also a new range of quality garden benches dotted among the plants, so you are welcome to wander around the garden centre and take a rest as you go. You can even sit and enjoy the view over Taunton Vale and the Quantocks.

The business also incorporates EVER-GREENHEDGING.co.uk, one of the largest stockists of evergreen hedging plants in the country. Thousands of plants are grown every year on the nursery from small to large, mature hedging plants; the best sellers being Laurel, Leylandii, Photinia 'Red Robin' and Portugal Laurel. These are delivered locally or nationwide or can be collected from Greenshutters Nurseries and Garden Centre.

Greenshutters is run by Dr Roger Eavis, who bought the nursery in 1998 and the business has grown steadily every year since then. "We pride ourselves on good customer service and advice, good quality plants and I hope we have created a pleasant place to wander and enjoy the plants," says Roger, "We have a great team of staff who are always willing to help and give advice". Greenshutters Nurseries and Garden Centre is well worth a visit.

For more information visit their website at GREENSHUTTERS.co.uk or follow them on Facebook at Facebook.com/GreenshuttersGC.

Patsy Cline and Friends

Tribute concert to Patsy Cline, Hank Williams and Jim Reeves at the Beehive

THE Velvet Country voice of Patsy Cline caught the imagination of Sue Lowry who has been a lifelong fan of Patsy Cline and Country Music!

Patsy Cline was a record breaking recording artist spending 251 weeks in the Country Music Album charts in the U.S.A. A down to earth Country 'gal' who could look good in Western wear or any evening dress, as she performed all the Country Ballads.

Sue Lowry, with her powerful rendition of 'Crazy', 'Sweet Dreams', and 'I Fall to Pieces', will take you back to those honky tonk days of pure country music. Other songs include 'Honky Tonk Merry go Round', 'She's Got You', and 'Got a lot of Rhythm in my Soul'.

Joining Sue Lowry will be Marc Robinson, who has been up to now renowned for playing Buddy Holly, will pay tribute to the Granddaddy of Country Music Hank William, with songs including 'Howlin' at the Moon', 'I saw the Light', and 'Rutti Tutti'.

Lee Davidge performs a sensitive tribute to Jim Reeves with his authentic costume and iconic mesmerizing voice, songs will include ... 'Welcome to my World', 'Distant Drums', and the song everyone knows and can join in with, 'Bimbo'!

Wear your western gear and join us for a hayride of a show!

Suits all ages, as long as you're prepared for a 'Honkin Tonkin' good Time!

The Patsy Cline and Friends show comes to The Beehive, Honiton on Saturday, August 6th, from 7.30pm. Tickets are £15, available

Patsy Cline and Friends

Four-star films at The Beehive

TWO four star reviewed films coming to The Beehive on Friday, July 29th, and Saturday, July 30th at 7.30pm.

'The Daughter', is a tale of small town Australia haunted by the past.

The Guardian review wrote: "Simon Stone's striking bloodline squabble."

The writer-director returns to The Wild Duck for his lush, moody feature debut, reconfiguring Ibsen with sublime production values and a pedigree cast.

In an age of blockbusters and sequels, 'Chicken' - from filmmaker Joe Stephenson - is the kind of low-budget British indie which restores faith in cinema as a means of genuine storytelling with well-rounded, engaging characters. Receiving a glowing endorsement from none other than Sir Ian McKellen, this debut feature needs no further introduction but announces the arrival of a promising young director with a tale of acceptance, hardship and perseverance which reaches far beyond its insular location.

Whistle down the Wind

SUNDAY, and the Ottregians had their technical rehearsal at King's school Ottery!

WOW! amazing singing and acting - this is going to be a very powerful show! 'Whistle Down the Wind' has stunning music and a really good story. Tickets are only £8 and £4.50 with all profits going to Hospiscare. If you miss this musical it would be a shame as it is a rarely done musical by Lloyd Webber with musical numbers you will recognise and find yourself humming. The story is powerful and the cast are amazingly talented with professional musicians who play many instruments to set the scene brilliantly. It has a cast of local talent both adult and children, who will make you laugh and cry as the story is enacted with pathos and humour, with singing that showcases both ballads and rock numbers- it was fiendishly difficult but the company have cracked it!

Come and buy tickets on the door everynight from tuesday to saturday at 7.30pm, or from the Hospiscare shop. It will be memorable.

Wondering back to the era of rock 'n' roll

THE UK's number one tribute to the music of the 50s and 60s – The Wonderers – will play live at Winstons in Seaton on Friday, August 12th.

The Wonderers not only replicate the sounds of the era, but also the look, and have been wowing audiences up and down the country. They are looking forward to playing their first ever South West gig.

Roll back the years to the songs of rock 'n' roll legends including Elvis, Buddy Holly, Little Richard, Eddie Cochran, Big Bopper and many more.

Winstons Manager Chris Oakes said: "this is a big event and is selling quickly even before we advertised, so don't miss out".

The show starts at 9pm. Tickets are £10 in advance and £13 on the night, and can be bought from Winstons, Beer Village Stores, or Ax Music, Axminster.

The Wonderers

Come and have the Time of Your Life!

Green Date

AS PART of Winstons' double header music weekend, the world's number one tribute to Californian punk-rockers Green Day, 'Green Date', will be playing live.

Green Date have been endorsed by Green Day themselves. Green Date frontman Bille Joe says: "We are gonna shake Winstons to the rafters - you ain't seen nothin' like this!".

Having played together for several years, they have built an excellent live reputation and regularly play to 15,000+ people in this country and around the world.

Winstons manager Chris Oakes said: "this is the biggest act we have put on so far and we have sold over half the tickets, this will be a sellout."

Expect to here all the classics from 'Basket Case', 'Time of Your Life', 'American Idiot', and many more.

The show starts at 9pm and tickets are £10 in advance, £13 on the night and are available from Winstons, Beer Village Stores, or Ax Music, Axminster.

The small hall with the BIG reputation

David Hall

FOLK • ROOTS
ACOUSTIC • JAZZ
BLUES • DANCE
THEATRE • FILM

ALTHOUGH July at The David Hall featured just two visiting musical acts, this is again a memorable month.

Firstly, on Friday July 1st we welcomed back - after a 14-year gap - Steve Ashley, who is one of Folk music's finest singer/songwriters. He gave a stunning performance and the audience was left spellbound - not just by his distinctive voice and virtuoso guitar playing, but also by the quality of his self-penned material. After four decades on the road I can honestly say that Steve is better than ever!

On Sunday 31st July we shall be featuring one of Scotland's most popular bands: Shooogenifty. They are headlining at Sidmouth Folk Festival on Saturday and will be with us the following day - and, surprisingly, at the time of going to press, tickets for their South Petherton gig are still available!

For more than two decades, Shooogenifty has fused traditional-sounding tunes to devilishly dirty rhythms. This band has toured the world and their globetrotting adventures have a great influence on their music.

This is an event not to be missed! The only problem will be fitting all seven of the band onto our stage! Please support this really special 'Chance to Dance' event, which starts at 7.30pm on Sunday next. Tickets are £20.00 (£19.00 concessions).

As in previous years, musically, we are having the month of August off - the exception being Acoustic Night on Friday 19th. Therefore, I thought I would give you early notice of some of the artists who will be with us at The David Hall this Autumn.

There is again a mix of artists returning to perform, together with many who will be appearing in our unique venue for the first time

The regulars include St Agnes Fountain who, once again, will perform at The Hall for two nights in December. Their second appearance - on Saturday 10th - has already almost sold out (not bad, given that we are only in July!). Also back just before Christmas are the excellent duo, Belshazzar's Feast; and in September, after an 8-year gap, the ever-popular Strawbs will perform their acoustic set.

Artists performing for the first time include, in September, the fabulous eight-piece band, The Home Service. They are now fronted by the great musician John Kirkpatrick and retain many original members from their formation in 1981. Newcomers to Petherton in October are Rob Heron and the Tea Pad Orchestra who will perform their own brand of Western Swing, Blues, Gypsy Jazz and Country.

In November, we shall welcome the Welsh band Calan, who are always great fun: as well as superb musicianship, step dancing from a champion dancer makes for a terrific show.

I hope this has wetted your appetite for what the Autumn has in store at The David Hall. There is very much more, and full details can be obtained from the printed programme - copies of which are available in several local locations, as well as at The David Hall, and on our website:

www.thedavidhall.org.uk

I look forward to giving you details of our exciting September programme next month.

Meanwhile, Happy Summer Hols to you all!
Pete Wheeler, Petherton Arts Trust

Further events at The David Hall in August

FURTHER events at The David Hall during August will include two presentations by Petherton Picture Show. On Friday 12th the film will be Room (15), starring Brie Larson, Jacob Tremblay and Sean Bridger, and on Friday 26th, The Big Short (15), with Christian Bale, Steve Carrell and Ryan Gosling.

Acoustic Night is on Friday 19th, at 7.30pm. All performers have the opportunity to deliver for 10-15 minutes with full PA and lighting system. If you wish to perform, please email folk@chriswatts.org to secure a slot.

On Wednesday 24th and Thursday 25th August there will be an amateur theatre production of Bash, by Neil Labute, presented by special arrangement with Samuel French Ltd. Bash portrays a trio of unforgettable personal accounts - all three being darkly brilliant portraits of evil in everyday life. For tickets at £8.00 each please contact 07712 577019 or 07743 304466 or, email beatniktheatre@gmail.com

SPEAKEASY AT THE ARTS CENTRE

POPULAR jazz pianist Mike Denham returns to Ilminster Arts Centre to host another of his 'Speak-Easy Nights' on Friday, August 12th.

Joining Mike for this vintage jazz event is trumpeter Steve Graham and blues shouter Hamish Maxwell. A skillful multi-instrumentalist (the lute and the bagpipes are amongst his accomplishments) Steve is one of the UK's most-respected New Orleans style trumpet players. His ability to explore the full range of the music, from the sweet and melodic to the hot and dirty, from the low-down to the cultivated, ensures that his performances are always enthralling; Steve takes the music to another level.

Hamish Maxwell is a powerful singer in the mould of Big Joe Turner while also being reminiscent of the great George Melly. Hamish cut his teeth in the skiffle era and over many decades has performed with many of the top names on the International music scene. His impromptu performance of 'Roll 'em Pete' accompanied by Patrick Smet, at the 2011 UK Boogie Woogie Festival went down storm and he has been a festival and boogie club night favourite ever since!

Mike Denham is one of the most popular performers at the Arts Centre, and his concerts generally play to a full house. A brilliant pianist, Mike's love of early jazz is second to none, and he is always happy to share his wealth of knowledge with the audience via an array of amusing but informative anecdotes.

This will be an evening of music from the golden age of jazz played by three big characters who also happen to be cracking musicians. Advance booking is strongly recommended. Tickets £14 (pre-show supper £13 at 7pm, must be booked in advance). Box Office 01460 54973.

Axmouth children rule the world!

THE Drama Club section of ACT (Axmouth Children's Theatre) put on an end of sessions production recently. This show over two nights was put on for friends, families and invited guests to allow the children to showcase what they have been doing during the sessions. The hall was full both nights as the youngsters went through their paces with comedy sketches, many of which they had written themselves, dances, songs, monologues and poems.

The audiences were treated to some excellent routines as the cast performed their program loosely revolving around an imaginary school and entitled "When Children Rule the World", overseen by a strict headmaster.

The confidence that the cast have been developing shone through and they received a well-earned encore on the Saturday. Also the togetherness and the enjoyment was clear for all to see. Credit for individual sketches goes to Ellie, Imogen, Euan, Caitlin and Lilley.

Credit must also go to Beth Wood and Samantha Tooze for all of their help throughout the term and to Lindsay and the backstage staff and all of the other parents who helped. What was extremely pleasing was to see older cast members who have left the fold returning to help in other roles.

ACT are now taking a short break before returning in September to start work on their next main production.

Live music and BBQ at OAK FEST

"I AM now on my third year here at the Royal Oak," says landlord Martin. "I love running the pub and try to put on a varied amount of entertainment for my locals and of course new customers who are welcome to come along to our old traditional pub".

The Royal Oak runs an open mic night every fortnight with host Elijah Wolf, and for bingo fans that is also run fortnightly. Wednesday is the ever popular quiz night.

There is a large function room and have several skittle teams who play for the pub, and not forgetting the darts teams, so there is always something happening every evening.

The Royal Oak can boast the largest beer garden in Crewkerne with two marquees; one for the groups to play in, and the BBQ marquee. In the summer months they also use the Pe'tanque (boules) pitch.

You are always sure of a warm welcome when you visit the bar, and landlord Martin looks forward to old and new customers enjoying the Pub.

An exciting new music venue called 'The Hideaway Bar' is due to be opened soon - watch this space for the grand opening date.

Pulman's Property View

'DIFFERENT ROADS SOMETIMES LEAD TO THE SAME CASTLE'

IF you follow Game of Thrones you might recognise the quote but I think it sums up the post Brexit mood quite well. Whether you voted remain or leave we are where we are and there is a collective desire to arrive at the same place. A stronger, stable and healthy economy is the desire of everyone.

Research from Symonds & Sampson shows that we are on the right course with more sales agreed since the referendum than in the same period last year. In 2015 we were expecting a post-election lull but it was slow to materialise and the summer lull came early. This year people have postponed making the decision until the outcome but then, in the overwhelming number of cases, proceeded as they had planned.

So what's the explanation? For most buyers and sellers the drivers to move are employment, age and more importantly the stage of their life, affordability and housing need. So if you think you're still going to have a job, still need somewhere to live and can access mortgage lending then needs must. Moving to be nearer work or grandchildren, a desire for a larger or smaller house or garden or just a place of your own are decisions that cannot be put off forever and being happy is often far more important than worrying about what might happen in two, three or five years.

Change is likely to be slow – interest rates are forecast to remain low and lending availability should remain constant, unlike in 2008/9 when the banks were in deep trouble. This means we would expect house prices to remain stable as demand persists and new supply is historically weak. This said, with uncertainty comes hesitation and we may see the number of transactions cool as people feel less urgency to move or climb the ladder. So while the basic need to buy and sell will keep the market predictable for the majority of buyers, there have been some interesting upshots from the Brexit vote.

Our sales throughout Dorset, Devon, Somerset, Wiltshire and Hampshire have been strong, £45 million agreed since 24 June, with buyers continuing to move from the South East and London but it is the enquiries from ex pats in Europe that have been most interesting. Many UK citizens living in France, for example, are nervous about President Hollande and the taxes that he might impose on them.

A welcome by-product of the Brexit vote may well be that a root and branch review of the structural housing deficit is high on the political agenda, leading to a more creative and concerted long-term strategy to build more suitable homes. The abandonment of the 2020 target for eradicating the budgetary deficit may give more funding options than previously existed to make some serious inroads

So the current sentiment seems more concerned with day to day practicalities of life than the uncontrollable machinations of global politics. There can be no doubt that impacts to the cost of borrowing, employment, skilled migration for the house building sector, internal UK politics and EU deals will all influence the housing market but with a new prime minister who appears strong, and certainly no pussy cat despite the kitten heels, it seems that we are back on the right road.

SPOTLIGHT ON MY SERVICE

Jim Rose

Qualified Window Service Engineer

My name is Jim Rose and I am a fully qualified window and door service engineer, repairing double glazed windows and doors in the Exeter and East Devon area for over 30 years. before establishing my own repair business 20 years ago I worked for national companies Anglian and Europlas where I gained vast experience in many areas of my trade and excellent customer care skills.

I specialise in Misty double glazed sealed unit replacement, this is when it looks like there is condensation between the glass, all my replacement units are manufactured locally and carry a 5 year guarantee. I measure and fit all my own units which helps to keep costs competitive.

If your windows and doors are draughty, leaking or not closing correctly there are things that can be done to resolve these problems sometimes it is just a simple adjustment or maybe new hinges or closing mechanism, no matter how old they are there is normally a solution many parts are still available.

I offer free quotations with no call out charge and all my repair work carries a guarantee.

Kit your MG GS out for summer

SCHOOL'S out and it's time for summer and, for some, that means holidays or at the very least a fun, family day out.

MG Motor UK's newest model, the MG GS, is the perfect solution for getting a family and all the necessary equipment in whilst still maintaining comfort and space. To make the MG GS even more family and adventure friendly, there is a fantastic array of accessories available.

For those looking to head out on their bikes, roof cross bars (£204.00) are the perfect accessory to hold cycle carriers (£192.00). Or, if the preference is to place bikes on the back, a tow bar cycle carrier (from £131.99) is also available to carry them neatly to the chosen destination. The roof cross bars are also ideal for a roof box. The 360-litre roof box (£420.00) with a three-point locking system, for additional security, has a quick attachment that fits the box to the roof bars entirely from the inside.

Hoping to tow a caravan or trailer? Great news, the MG GS has a towing capacity (braked) of 1,750kg. A tow bar is also available in the accessories range making it easier to fit, hook-up and tow.

For the more practical customer, who might want to kid-proof or simply protect their MG GS, there is a range of rubber mats (from £30.00) for the front, rear and boot. These handy accessories protect the car's interior from mud, spillages and water keeping the MG GS in showroom condition.

Those looking for a dog-friendly vehicle will be pleased to hear that the MG GS is also available with a dog guard (£75.00).

There are a number of other accessories for customers looking to make their MG GS stand out even more, including chrome effect side grilles, a chrome effect tailgate finisher and speed flash decals. For the full range and prices, visit mg.co.uk/owners/accessories/.

The MG GS range starts from £14,995 and is currently available with a number of great offers, including:

An £850 deposit contribution on all MG GS models

0% APR representative finance, which is available up to five years with a minimum 20% deposit

A five year or 80,000 mile (whichever occurs first) manufacturer parts and labour warranty

If you want to find out more about the newest SUV on the market, visit www.mg.co.uk/gs.

Summer car rentals set to increase as Brexit boosts staycations

DEMAND for car rental will surge this summer as more Britons react to current exchange rate woes by taking last-minute staycations in the UK, according to the leading industry body for vehicle rental and leasing.

The British Vehicle Rental and Leasing Association (BVRLA) made the prediction as it published new figures showing just how important a role car rental plays in the travel plans of millions of Britons. Its research shows that:

- There were 10.9m car rental transactions by UK residents in 2015
- 18 per cent of UK adults have rented a car in the UK, and 13 per cent have rented overseas
- 63 per cent said flexibility and convenience were the main reasons for renting

Gerry Keaney, Chief Executive of the BVRLA, said: "We predict a surge in demand for rentals as people take mini-breaks in the UK due to the weak pound. In a further boost, the current exchange rate will also attract overseas visitors which can be expected to increase rental demand."

"We urge holidaymakers to look out for the BVRLA logo when renting a car in the UK. Consumers who hire from a BVRLA member will have the peace of mind that the rental company offers high quality vehicles, adheres to a rigorous code of conduct and offers a dispute resolution service for further protection."

The BVRLA has issued the following tips for holidaymakers renting a car:

1. Only use a BVRLA member as you are guaranteed a quality assured company that operates to a professional code of conduct.
2. Do your homework. If you're relying on a price comparison site when getting quotes, pay close attention to what isn't included in the price.
3. Read the terms and conditions of your contract with the rental company.
4. Understand the insurance excess and waivers. Check if there are any exclusions to your loss/damage waiver or your insurance.

5. Find a fuelling option that suits you. Remember what you agreed to in order to avoid gifting the rental company a free tank of fuel or paying an extra charge to have the tank re-filled.

6. Tell the rental firm how you plan to use the vehicle – such as taking it abroad.

7. Arrive prepared. Remember to turn up at the rental desk with the credit card you used to make your booking and your driving licence.

8. Know what you've booked: Ensure you have thought about whether you are prepared to pay for any extra cover or an upgrade.

9. Check the vehicle over before you drive away. Don't sign any paperwork until you have read it through and are happy with it.

10. When returning your vehicle, allow plenty of time to check over the vehicle's condition with a rental agent present.

Mercedes-Benz announces UK pricing and specification for new E-Class estate

▲ The new Mercedes-Benz E-Class Estate

THE new Mercedes-Benz E-Class Estate is now available to order, priced from £37,935 for the E 220 d SE and £40,430 for the E 220 d AMG Line.

Initially, only the diesel-powered four-cylinder E 220 d will be available, with the six-cylinder E 350 d and petrol 3.0-litre V6 Mercedes-AMG E 43 joining the range later this year. Pricing for the E 350 d and E 43 will be announced when ordering opens in October.

The E 220 d features Mercedes-Benz's all-new four-cylinder 2.0-litre turbo-charged engine, which produces 194 hp and 400 Nm. A 9G-Tronic automatic gearbox comes as standard. It offers a combined fuel consumption of 67.3 mpg and CO2 levels from just 109 g/km, and it can reach 62 mph from standstill in just 7.7 seconds.

The E 200 d has been added to the E-Class Saloon line-up. It features a 2.0-litre engine with an output of 150 hp. It emits just 102 g/km of CO2 and delivers up to 72.4 mpg on the combined cycle.

As standard, SE models come with Garmin Map Pilot navigation system; Agility Control suspension; Easy-Pack automatic powered tail gate; Parking Pilot including Parktronic and reversing camera; chrome roof rails; 64-colour selectable LED interior lighting;

Keyless-Go starting function; heated front seats; DAB radio; and 17-inch alloys with a five-spoke design.

For an extra £2,495, AMG Line adds AMG exterior styling with 19-inch alloy wheels in titanium grey; upper dashboard finished in Artico leather; black ash wood trim; brushed stainless steel AMG sports pedals with black rubber studs; and a three-spoke AMG steering wheel wrapped in Nappa leather.

Premium and Premium Plus packages are also available. The Premium pack (£2,795) includes Keyless-Go Comfort package; Memory package; and a panoramic glass sunroof. For an additional £1,100, Premium Plus adds the Burmester surround sound system with 13 speakers; and a Multibeam LED Intelligent Light System.

Next-generation driver assistance systems include a Lane Tracking Package (£595) that includes Passive Blind Spot Assist and Active Lane Keeping Assist; and the more comprehensive Driving Assistance Plus Package.

The Driving Assistance Plus package costs £1,695, and includes Drive Pilot, which combines three innovative assistance systems; Steering Pilot, Distance Pilot Distronic, and Speed Limit Pilot. Steering Pilot detects road markings and actively assists the driver by one-sided braking, guiding the car to stay within its lane. Distance Pilot Distronic uses radars to maintain a set distance from the car in front, while Speed Limit Pilot detects a change in speed limit and automatically alters the car's speed without intervention from the driver.

Active Brake Assist with cross-traffic function, Evasive Steering Assist, and Pre-Safe Impulse Side are also included in the Driving Assistance Plus package.

Command Online is available for £1,495 and increases the standard 8.4-inch navigation screen to 12.3 inches. Customers can opt for the 12.3-inch cockpit display – creating a widescreen effect inside the cabin for just £495.

football beer albion Walker stays

AFTER a fruitless search for a new manager during the close season, Beer Albion have re-appointed Richard Walker as player-manager for the forthcoming season in the Devon & Exeter League Premier division writes Richard Honnor.

Walker, who played professionally for Aston Villa, Blackpool and Bristol Rovers, has been at the helm for the last two years and the club are delighted that he has offered his services once again.

He will continue to play and will be assisted on the bench by chairman John Moughton who successfully managed Beer Reserves some years ago.

Walker said that he is very happy to continue in the role knowing that he will have solid, reliable support on the bench in particular to handle all the ancillary duties that so often fall unfairly on the manager's shoulders. He added: "Training sessions began a couple of weeks ago and attendance was very good. I was also pleased to see several new faces at the sessions and this bodes well for the new season".

Meanwhile, Paul Langham has been appointed Beer Reserve team manager for the new campaign in Division Five of the D&E League. Paul played for the Fishermen's 2nds last year and will be assisted by Tom Neale another 2nd team stalwart.

Chairman and new first team assistant Moughton said that he was delighted with the appointments: "Things look very bright for the new season," he added.

Training takes place every Tuesday and Thursday at Beer's ground, The Furzebrake, Stovar Long Lane.

The sessions start at 6.30pm and any new players will be warmly welcomed.

Masters clinches Dartmoor bronze finish

WITH PAUL MASTERS

PAUL Masters headed off on Saturday to South Brent in Dartmoor ready for the Coach journey to Belstone for the start of the DARTMOOR CROSSING a 34 mile Off-road Trail Ultra Marathon, with the wildness of the Moor ahead and the clouds building it was with some concern as rain started to fall!

Setting off a little fast with a hard mile of climbing to the top of the first Tor it was going to be a long run.

◆ BATTLING AT BATH:
Helen Baxter

With the cloud starting to clear and with the heat building up it was ideal that the 2nd half of the race had many water crossings.

Paul made good progress across the Moor and with good navigation was soon picking off places with a nice long down hill towards South Brent and the much sought finish line Paul crossed the line in 17h/100 in a time of 6h 10m 00s and 3rd in his age category.

Next heading off to Bath for the RELISH RUN Long Half Marathon was Helen Baxter.

This race was all about the beauty of the country-side around the South-East of Bath, setting off along the paths there was a mix of runners for distances from 10k to full marathon meaning pace control was going to be needed to hold to Helen's own race plan.

With the race heading into the hills and fields away from Bath, Helen found the going tough having had less training leading up to the race than hoped, but headed into the finish area still smiling.

Four Chard Runners headed off to Nottingham on Saturday ready for the FULL OUTLAW IRON MAN event.

Jim and Nina Wagstaff, Stuart Gold and Jo Carnell plunged into the open water for a 2.4 mile swim - definitely an eye opener with the low water temperature so early in the morning!

With the 2.4 miles completed Jim and Stuart were off heading out to transition first, Nina and Jo following in next, heading onto the 112 mile cycle leg which had all heading away from the National Water-sports centre and into the countryside.

Jim started to make good headway and was soon working through the large field with Stuart in hot pursuit. Nina and Jo were soon through transition and once on the bikes both were in strong positions as some of the gradient was taking its toll on others.

It was Jim who entered into the last transition ready to now undertake the last leg - a full 26.2 mile marathon.

Transition the quartet headed out on the run, the long day was now taking its toll but the pace was good.

Jim entered the National Watersports centre for the last time and crossed the line in 12h 18m 12s with Stuart home in 13h 06m 14s.

Nina Wagstaff was next finish in 13h 13m 33s an awesome achievement after suffering from sickness on Friday

Rounding off the fantastic Chard effort was Jo Carnell in 15h 24m 55s.

At the same venue CRR Bernie Genge was contacted to take up a last minute stand-in position to run the final section the 26.2 mile marathon.

Bernie was quick off the line and really stretched himself on this lapped course and pushing all the way he crossed the line in a time of 3h 30m 22s rounding off a great show for Chard in this major event.

Centurian Ronnie remembered

HONITON with John Pawley

FOLLOWING on from the recent death of Andy Sharland Club members are now mourning the death of Ronnie Pew.

The church bells rang out last year, in May, for his 100th birthday and Ronnie continued to play the occasional golf round till fairly recently.

"A lovely man" was how he was thought of by all who came across him. He died on his 59th wedding anniversary in Gittisham where he and his wife Ann lived. Ronnie had a career in the RAF as an aeronautical engineer, working on the Merlin engine of the Spitfire and became a Fellow of the Royal Aeronautical Society.

He was also a member of the Worshipful Company of Clockmakers, and had been granted the Freedom of the City of London.

At the Club he was the sponsor for an annual individual knock-out Salver for the Seniors, which bears his name.

Meanwhile, there was a challenging format for the Tuesday Mixed Pairs. The gentlemen took the first tee shot then lady and gentlemen took alternate shots throughout the medal round which was eventually won by Sheila Palmer & Peter Clarke with a very respectable score of 71 well clear of the chasing pack. Second place went to Liz Wood & James Liell with 76, on count-back from Maureen Tollemache & Stan Squire. They were followed by Heather Clarke & Max Pipe with 79.

The Lady Captain's Prize for the best Stableford score in the qualifier played on Wednesday was won by Elizabeth Wood with an impressive 36 pts - winning Bronze 1.

A tricky wind with fast greens ensured challenging conditions for all.

Silver division winner was Lady Captain Jane Watts with 34 with Anne Davies next on 33 on count-back from Janet Hughes and Olwen Eaton in that order.

Dot Grove came second in Bronze 1 on 34 beating Sue Kelson on count-back, with Sharon Rouse next, on 32. Bronze 2 winner was Linda McLaughlin with 34.

The 9 hole Stableford winner was Sue Calver with 14 pts with Maureen Tollemache (13) next.

The Seniors cancelled their routine Friday competition in respect to the funeral of Andy Sharland on the same day, with the reception being held in the clubhouse on Friday afternoon.

Over the past few days all members of the club have taken advantage of the good conditions to complete knock-out matches, ahead of the work week coming on the greens in August.

CRICKET ST THOMAS with Bert Robinson

THE Senior section acceded to the Ladies on Monday to enable them to host the South West Rally.

This competition, in its eighth year, is run in the format of a Bowmaker tournament and is open to ladies from all over the South West, and was attended by 144 golfers.

The trophy winners were Taunton & Pickering Ladies, but the highlight of the day was a hole-in-one by Ann Gates of Wheathill at the par 3 16th.

The Seniors returned to the course on Tuesday to compete in a four man Medalford event.

In intense heat, 24 golfers made hard work of the conditions. Result: 1st George Wallace; Brian Denning; Andy Beale & John Livens 33, 2nd Trevor Dobson; Bill Hilson; Nobby Hodder & James Dick 35.

Meanwhile, 32 members attended the Canadian Greensomes tournament in similar conditions on Wednesday.

The dry fairways and fast greens hindered the players to a certain extent, but there were two sub par rounds which were fine achievements.

Result: 1st Frank Martin & John Wandless 67.38, 2nd George Wallace & Malcom Roy 69.50, 3rd Ted Bryden & Brian Frost 70.63.

The Seniors ended their week on Friday with an "all to count" three-man stableford competition

Sixteen teams of three took to the course in sweltering conditions which took its toll on some.

Result: 1st Bob Barrow; John Wandless & Colin Ireland 108 points, 2nd Mark Coleman; Stuart Pope & Barry Singleton 100, 3rd Andy Beale; Jerry Stephens & George Wallace 99.

AXE CLIFF with Peter Motson

THE Ladies section played their last Divisional match in the Sheelah Creasy competition and achieved a draw against Woodbury Ladies with three matches won, three lost and one halved.

Helen Kenworthy & Margaret Kenchington played the 3rd round of their Vets 4BBB Inter Club Knockout against Royal North Devon at Tiverton and came away with a win on the 17th green, a good away victory in a close game.

Margaret Kenchington was delighted with the turnout for her Lady Captain's Day competition, with all the golfers wearing something pink.

The competition winner was Anne Jarvis with Jill Wellington in 2nd place.

The team winners were Glenda Board & Jill Wellington. The competition was followed by a very tasty buffet and of course, a pink "golf" cake, following the pink theme throughout.

Axe Cliff Ladies were represented at the Cricket St Thomas SW competition with four teams of three, of which two teams were prominently in amongst the prizes - Helen Kenworthy, Glenda Board, Sandra & Walker and also Margaret Kenchington, Stella Thompson & Jill Wellington. Stella Thompson and Alison Cooke both recorded 25.

There were teams from all around the SW and it was a very successful event.

The latest Ladies competition was the Par Cup in which the winning score was +2 by Helen Kenworthy and in 2nd place was with a level par was Glenda Board with Bee Sammons close behind in 3rd with a -1 score.

The Seniors section Founders Trophy was played as a combined Stableford and Medal format, half SF/and half MF, deducting half one score from the other.

First place was won by B.Graham (HC 25) with a net score of 13, in 2nd place was P.Hornsby (HC 15) with 16 and, A.Bishop (HC 24) taking the 3rd place with a score of 18.
